SHOWBOL SOUTH AFRICA

SOCCER NEVER LOOKED THIS GOOD!

So what exactly is SHOWBOL?

It is the international brand of professional indoor soccer which is taking South Africa by storm. It originated in South America and is currently played all over the world. Legends such as the all time great Diego Maradona have graced and endorsed this form of the game.

Amateur players from all levels now have the opportunity to show their skills and perhaps one day represent, their club, region, province and ultimately their pro-teams.

Showbol - Going forward...

8 National pro franchise teams, representing all the regions in South Africa, will be selected. This national league, to be launched in 2010, will be the first SAFA sanctioned professional indoor league.
